Mark A. Bergeron*

I feel very fortunate to have known Betty Taylor as both my supervisor and my friend for more than 16 years. She has been an outspoken advocate of technology and computer-related improvements in the Levin College of Law for as long as I've known her.

Betty's leadership with the multitude of issues inherent in service-oriented technology has been inspirational. The joy she takes in every aspect of her work makes this an enjoyable experience for all of us, and enhances our ability to assist the college.
